April 17, 1925.

Mrs. Robert Law,
Waynesboro, Ga.

Dear Mrs. Law;

I am due you an apology, one hundred times, for not replying to your letter of Jan. 26, 1924. I have been so very busy and away from town so much that it has just simply been put off from time to time.

I appreciated your letter regarding the Greene family, likewise the Law family, and I have corresponded quite a good deal with Cousin Rebecca and others. I do not know why my Father, Isaac Cuthbert Collier, did not know more about the residence of your husband, however I did hear him speak of Frank Greene having moved to Bainbridge in South Georgia.

Some time I am coming to Waynesboro to visit you, if I can ever have the time to get around, I expect to go to Texas during the month of May and while there will call on Cousin Mary Greene Wilson who lives at Douglasville, Texas. She was the daughter of Uncle John Miles Greene.

A few days ago Cousin Mary sent me an old photograph of Judge James W. Greene which I appreciated very much, as my grandmother, Amanda Fletcher Greene, was a sister of Judge Greene.

I notice what you say regarding the spelling of the name Greene, yes I knew how to spell the name, knew it ended with an e but failed to tell my stenographer at the time she was writing the letter. I likewise knew our grandfather was a descendant of Nathaniel Greene, as Floyd Corhin, of New York, often told me this. Floyd was the grandson of Judge James W. Greene, he died you know in January last year.

The B in the Greene family was for the name Bass, and many of them had this name, just as the C in our family stands for Cuthbert and related to the old Cuthbert family of Southeast Georgia who held many of the public offices just after the Revolutionary war and up as late as 1840 and 1850.

Trusting that we may have the pleasure of having you visit us and that we may know one another more closely, and with sincere regards, I beg to remain

Very Sincerely,

JCC:C
